

BUILDING IN PETERSBURG

Considerable Activity in the Western Part of the City.

ARCHIE M'KINLEY MISSING

Has Not Been Seen Since He Crossed the River in a Row-Boat—Heavy Fines for Carrying Concealed Weapons.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) PETERSBURG, VA., Oct. 6.—Indications point to a considerable activity in building in the western part of the city, and, therefore, an increase in the value of property in that section.

Mr. W. W. Robinson, contractor of this city, who recently purchased the property of the Payne Divinity School, on Washington Street, which includes the base-ball park and Spicer and Jones homesteads, has also purchased the large vacant lot opposite the Virginia Passenger and Power Company, as well as other adjacent property. He is thus in possession of lots with a frontage of 3,000 feet on Washington, Rome and Sheppard Streets, making more than a square of the best building sites in the city. Mr. Robinson will probably sell some of the lots with a provision that residences be erected and will, himself, build many houses either to be sold or to be rented. Practically all of this property fronts on the electric line. Mr. Robinson contemplates beginning work within a few weeks.

PROBABLY DROWNED.

Mr. Archie McKinley, a well known resident of Ettrick, has not been seen since he left his work at the canal yesterday to go to his home by crossing the Appomattox River in a row boat. His friends fear he has been drowned. Mayor Jones this morning fined Walter Stuart and Gus Pollard, two negroes, $50 each and cost for carrying concealed weapons. The Mayor announces that $50 will hereafter be the minimum fine for the offense. This decision is the result of the alarming frequency of arrest of men, especially negroes, on whose persons are found one, and sometimes two pistols. Mayor Jones will endeavor to put down this habit, and if the fine has not positive effect he will resort to other measures.

COLORED CHURCH CELEBRATION. The centennial celebration at Gilfield Baptist Church is attracting considerable interest among the colored people of the city. Packed audiences attended the three services Sunday, and the same is true of the crowds that heard Rev. H. G. Hunt, of New York, who preached last night. W. F. Graham, D. D., of Richmond; Rev. H. Madison, D. D., of McKenney, and Rev. D. Webster Davis, A. M., of Richmond, are among those attending the celebration. There are many strangers from various States in attendance, and many visitors are still arriving. Rev. D. W. Davis, of Richmond, preached to-night.

The Petersburg Tobacco Association has re-elected General Smith Bolling president. This is the eighth time the Bolling family has served as president of the association. Mr. R. L. Watson was elected vice-president; J. H. MacIn, J. J. Percival, James H. Gray and David Dunlop, board of directors; J. Collin Neal, secretary and treasurer. Buyers and sellers in this city expect the sale of loose tobacco to begin Wednesday of next week.

JONES ARRESTED.

Richard Jones, the divorced husband of Black Patti, was arrested last night for trying to enter the rear of the Academy of Music. The Black Patti was divorced from her husband four years ago. He is not connected with the case, but followed her from Providence, R. I., to this city. No charges were preferred by the former wife, and Jones was subsequently released.

Richmond College foot-ball team will play the Petersburg team to-morrow afternoon at the ball park on Washington Street, in this city.

Mr. W. J. Kibby, of Nashville, Tenn., who recently accepted the secretaryship of the Y. M. C. A. in this city, has been ill for several weeks, and is now self-sustaining from typhoid pneumonia. While his condition shows some improvement, he is still very ill.

Y. M. C. A. GYMNASIUM. The Y. M. C. A. gymnasium opened last night, with twenty-five in the class, in charge of Messrs. George Harrison and Robert Prichard. This class will meet every Monday and Tuesday night. The next school will open next Monday. Classes in penmanship and arithmetic will be taught by Professor Scott, of Richmond Academy, and book-keeping and business customs by Mr. P. S. Pugh, who so successfully taught this class last year. The Y. M. C. A. decided not to have its star course this season, much to the disappointment of the many patrons who have so thoroughly enjoyed this series of entertainments for the past three years. Mr. Isham Dyer, of Fifth Street Methodist Church, has arranged for several concerts to take the place of the star course. The Y. M. C. A. will in no way be connected with these entertainments. The first of the series will take place Friday night, when Mr. Dyer will present Miss Kate Elsmere Fuller, an accomplished elocutionist. She will be assisted by the White Ribbon Cadet Band.

Rev. J. B. Ferrell announces that he will preach the funeral of Geo. Bacon at Fifth Street Baptist Church Thursday night.

Probably a thousand colored people were unable to gain admission to the Academy of Music last night to witness the Black Patti. The orchestra, which was reserved for white people, was fairly well patronized.

DEAD IN BED

A Frenchman Dies Suddenly at His Home Near Gordonsville. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) GORDONSVILLE, VA., October 6.—Mr. R. de Leroux, a Frenchman, who lived about a mile east of Gordonsville, was found dead in his bed at an early hour this morning from an unknown cause.

Mr. de Leroux was in Gordonsville Tuesday evening, apparently in his usual health. He went home last night about 10 o'clock and retired to his room to sleep. Falling to answer in the morning after being called, his wife went to his room and found him lying on his back, dead, with his face buried in the covering.

He came to this country from France several years ago and engaged in farming. An inquest was held over his body to-night.

CHESTNUT PICKER FATALLY SHOT

S. B. Hardwick Goes for His Gun and Fires on Negro.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WARSAW, VA., Oct. 6.—Mr. S. B. Hardwick, a prominent farmer and merchant of Kinsale, Westmoreland county, and ex-treasurer of the county, shot and mortally wounded William Gordon, colored, this afternoon. Mr. Hardwick was returning from the village to his home at Federal Hill when he saw Gordon gathering chestnuts from a tree on the line of Mr. Hardwick's property. Gordon was requested to cease gathering the chestnuts, to which he replied he would not. This greatly enraged Mr. Hardwick, who was under the influence of liquor. He replied to the negro by saying if he stayed there until he was shot. Mr. Hardwick then fired two shots, one of which took effect in the negro's side and stomach. Drs. Young and Fairfax pronounced his wounds as necessarily fatal.

Justice Unruh issued a warrant for Mr. Hardwick's arrest, and he was placed in charge of Constable Hudson.

Clinton Koonz, of Lacey Springs, Va., is in a critical condition at Winchester Memorial Hospital, with a fractured skull, which was caused by losing his foothold while packing ice in a refrigerator car on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad at Brunswick, Md., yesterday.

He fell backward a distance of twenty feet and his head struck on a piece of ice.

BATTLESHIP MAINE TO BE GIVEN SEVERE TEST

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NEWPORT NEWS, VA., Oct. 6.—The battleship Maine, which has been at the ship yard here for cleaning and painting, sailed today for Culebra Station. It is expected that the engines and boilers of the ship will be given a severe test on her run down to the station in the West Indies. Her guns and gun mounts have been tested since she was repaired at Cramp's, a few weeks ago.

THE REAL CAUSE.

The Ancient Scarp-Fever Theory Exploded.

At one time dandruff was attributed to the result of a feverish condition of the scalp, which threw off the dried cuticle in scales.

Professor Unna, Hamburg, Germany, noted authority on skin diseases, explodes the theory and says that dandruff is a germ disease.

This germ is really responsible for the dandruff and for so many bald heads. It can be cured if it is gone about in the right way. The right way, of course, and the only way, is to kill the germ.

Newbros' Herpicide does this, and cures the hair to grow luxuriantly, just as nature intended it should.

REGISTERED ILLEGALLY

Grand Jury at Norfolk Looking Into the Matter.

SUMMON MANY WITNESSES

Unloading Burning Cotton from German Ship—An Absconding Chinaman Arrested by His Brother.

Lived With Bullet in Brain.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., Oct. 6.—Great interest centers about the grand jury investigation of alleged illegal registration in the Second Ward. Some fifty witnesses were examined by the jury. Several boarding-house keepers have been summoned to testify to what they know of their boarders.

The grand jury returned no indictments but recommended that the Commonwealth's attorney probe the matter further. The anti-administration element against whom the crusade is directed, have asked that warrants be issued for the arrest of two colored voters, J. P. Corprew and T. J. Ward were to-night arrested for having illegally registered.

Six other warrants are yet to be served. It is understood that the others will follow. Mayor Riddick and City Engineer W. T. Brooke left to-night for Baltimore, to attend the League of American Municipalities Convention.

The decennial of the pastorate at Park Avenue Baptist Church, of the Rev. Dr. J. J. Hall, will be commemorated by the church on a large scale.

Joe Fun, a Chinaman, arrived here today from Springfield, Mass., in search of his brother, Joe Knd, who skipped his bond, leaving Joe to pay $500. The second Chinaman was found here and arrested. He was to have been deported. The steamship Erica, which put in here last night with her cargo of 4,700 bales of cotton bales, was allowed to come up to the city and discharge to-day. The fire has not yet buckled her plates and the dangerous cargo is being rapidly discharged.

IMPROPER SIGNALS. The investigation of the wreck at Boone on the Southern Railway, is in progress to-day. No decision has been reached but the train crew contend that an improper signal caused the accident.

Mr. Andrew J. Lonick, who shot himself with suicidal intent September 3d, is dead. He lived over a month with a bullet in his brain. His remains will be sent to Canada.

Governor Aycock, of North Carolina, will attend the Jamestown Exposition mass-meeting here. He so notified the committee to-day.

ALABAMA HARRINGTON RETURNS. Rear Admiral P. F. Harrington, commanding this naval station, returned to the navy yard to-day, after a month's leave. A rear admiral's salute was fired as his flag was hoisted aboard the Franklin.

During the Admiral's absence the station has been commanded by Captain J. E. Craig, captain of the yard. Two meetings of the Seaboard and Roanoke stockholders were to have been held at the general offices in this city to-day, one the regular annual meeting of the old parent road of the Seaboard system and another a special meeting, called by the request of stockholders to the president. The latter meeting was to have considered the merger of the road with the Seaboard system.

With regard to the statement that the small outstanding interest in the Seaboard and Roanoke with the remainder of the Seaboard system, an official of the company stated to-day that the outstanding interest, which represents twenty-two shares, is too small to have had any such effect.

GREEN BAY IMPROVING

Large Freight Receipts from Lumber and Staves.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) GREEN BAY, VA., Oct. 6.—Situated sixty miles south of Richmond, on the line of the Southern Railway, is the village of Green Bay, formerly "Price's Station," the land upon which the depot is built having been given to the old Richmond and Danville Railroad by Mr. Walter Price, who was a large property owner and slave dealer before the war. Mr. Julius Rowlett, the veteran station agent here, has held the position as agent and operator here for twenty-six years. His father, Mr. Thomas O. Rowlett, the first station agent appointed since the establishment of this office, who held the same until his death.

Green Bay has made some great improvements the last few years. The revenues for the railroad company have increased largely in the last twelve months, owing to the operation of so many saw and stove mills, which now number eight or ten, within a radius of seven miles.

The revenue derived from the shipment of freight from this station in August was the heaviest ever known.

So as to more conveniently and economically handle the lumber, the Southern Railway has put in two sidings near here, one three miles north and one two miles south, which is daily handling numbers of cars of sawed lumber and staves.

The greatest trouble is the scarcity of cars, the railroad company being unable to supply the demand.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHINCOTEAGUE, VA., October 6.—Rear Admiral Sigsbee, who figured conspicuously in the late Spanish-American war visited our island recently on business connected with the Lighthouse department, and during his stay here was tendered a handsome reception by Mrs. O. A SURPRISE VERDICT

A Citizen of Davidson County Killed by a Tree Falling on Him.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., Oct. 6.—John Rhodes was acquitted in Stokes County to-day of the charge of killing Captain King, of that county, last June. The verdict was a surprise to many who heard the evidence. It was thought that he would be convicted of murder in the second degree. King was shot down by Rhodes with a shot-gun, but the plea was self-defense.

The men had been at outs for a year or more over a piece of land. Mr. Jesse Hill, a well-known citizen of Davidson county, was killed yesterday by a tree falling on him. His head was crushed and his back and several ribs were broken. Hill and a friend were at work cutting the tree down and the former stepped across the road to get his coat.

Just as he stooped over the tree fell on him.

TALK OF TUNNELING ELIZABETH RIVER

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., Oct. 6.—There is renewed talk of the project of the Cape Henry electric line to construct a tunnel through Smith's Creek and under the Elizabeth River from the Atlantic City Bridge to Elmers Point, a distance of one and a half miles.

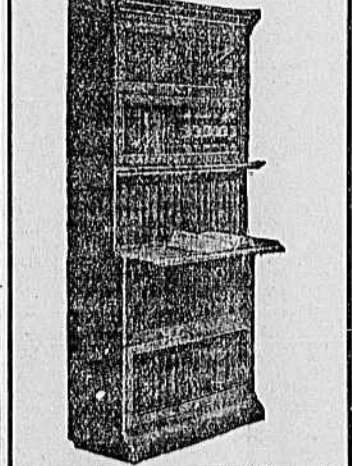

The building of the Chesapeake Transit Company, line to Cape Henry, a great achievement of Mr. Cole's, makes his movements of uncommon interest here.

Rev. James B. Taylor, of Atlanta, has accepted a call as temporary pastor of Freeman-Street Baptist Church.

The Republicans of Manchester express themselves as confident of winning at least one man in the legislative fight in this district, and news received by Chairman Smith from the counties tends to confirm the belief from the Republican standpoint.

Tickets are now at the disposal of the public.

The committee remarked on the energy being displayed by the ladies' committee, and it was the opinion of the individual members of the committee that the ladies were doing more than the men, and that it was advisable for all to get together, or the gentler sex would carry off the palm.

INDEPENDENT CANDIDATES

A Number Have Announced Their Candidacy in Pittsylvania.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHATHAM, Oct. 6.—As the campaign nears its end independent candidates are becoming numerous. Mr. M. F. Semones announced himself an independent candidate for treasurer Tuesday. He is commissioner of revenue for the second district, composed of Chatham and Calland's districts, and has made a most efficient officer. He is chairman of the Republican party, and will, it is believed, receive the full vote. Prominent men of his party have been urging him to become a candidate for some time.

Colonel Victor A. Witcher, of Riceville, Monday filed with the county clerk notice of his being an independent candidate for the House of Delegates.

G. Judson Ferguson has announced himself an independent candidate for commonwealth's attorney for the third district, composed of Dan and Banister River districts.

Rev. B. W. Spillman, field secretary of the Sunday-school Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, and Rev. J. M. Stiche, secretary of the State Sunday-school and Bible Board, presided at a Sunday-school institute held in the Chatham Baptist Church Monday. Quite a number of Sunday-school workers of the county were present at the morning, afternoon and evening sessions, all of which were very interesting and instructive.

Henry M. Long, of Brosville, has announced himself independent for commissioner of Tunstall district.
